

Richa Chandra

Coach | 3X Founder | Co-founder | CEO | International Speaker | Published Author

Richa Chandra is a certified and award-winning Business, Career, and Life coach with over 17 years of experience in different industries. Born to Indian parents in Norway, she experienced a beautiful blend of both cultures which is visible in her versatile activities and achievements. Besides her coaching company, Richa is the founder of a cultural institute in Norway named Indian Rhythms, Co-founder of “Her Story” 2020, and “She Reveals” summit 2021, the Country Chair of G100 India, and the President of WICCI Norway.

With a bachelor's degree in Economics and Administration with Computers, Richa started her career in the relevant field. In her career span, she worked as a CEO at non-profit organisation, lecturer at college, and also a computer instructor before successfully paving her path in multiple other fields. Being a successful businesswoman herself, Richa has always been passionate about helping other women to develop and grow their businesses as she ardently believes in women's empowerment. For her outstanding initiatives in business, Richa has been awarded Norway's The Most Aspirational Businesswomen, by Global Woman Club in 2019.

Despite being born in Norway, Richa has been a flagbearer of Indian culture since she was five, especially through her dance. With her mother, Shikha Chandra, she spread information and knowledge about cultural integration and diversity in Norway through Indian dance. Chandra family is known for artistic work and awareness by opening Norway's first Indian dance and music school. Indian Rhythms is the continuation of that. Besides being a successful dance artist and teacher, Richa has written 3 books that have now become the main Norwegian textbooks in teaching Indian Dance, compiling her experiences and knowledge as an Indian classic dance artist with an illustrious career.

When it comes to her coaching career, Richa attained inspiration from her favorite coach Anthony Robbins. After participating in many of his coveted workshops including Unleash the Power Within, Date with Destiny, and Business Mastery, she chose to be a certified NLP Master Practitioner and forge her path forward. Richa has gained commendable success in the areas related to business planning and growth strategy, goal mapping, branding, and packaging coaching. She has been running her coaching workshops both in person and online globally with utmost success.

Richa is also a prominent meditation coach who believes in enhancing intuition power through meditation to utilize that in decision-making in business and other fields of one's career and personal life. She published her first book on meditation in 2019, titled- “Proven Benefits of Meditation”.

Richa's coaching, workshops, and influential philosophy have been driving forces for the success of many other coaches and entrepreneurs. Richa has successfully supported over 8,600 people so far through her coaching and public speaking events. Despite so many achievements and wearing many hats at once, Richa still aspires to contribute to others' success through her works in Norway, India, and beyond. She believes in celebrating life and success, her own, and everyone else's too!

“Celebration is a big part of life and I love to celebrate everything. If we do not celebrate every accomplishment, our own and others, we do not enjoy life the way we are supposed to!” – Richa
